It is impossible to search by the title, author's name, published year of the individual article in journals.

☆ Prefix matching is useful in situations when you only know the abbreviation title or there are different conjugational suffixes. Please add an asterisk (*) to abbreviation or first several characters of word you want to search.

Ex.) Unif. commer. code law j

OK: unif* commer* code law jou*

NG: unif commer code law j , unif* commer* code law j*

(Searching without * or adding * to one character only is improper)
